PALM BEACH GARDENS, Fla. – April 19, 2023 – FDR Training, the nation's leading federal civil service law training event attracting decision-makers from nearly every federal agency, announced full program details including more than 75 workshops and sessions in seven tailored program tracks for the in-person event, taking place August 7 - 10 at the Caribe Royale Orlando in Florida.

This year's FDR Training program will highlight in-depth training on the most crucial federal workplace challenges, including hybrid work environments; Diversity, Equity, Inclusion and Accessibility (DEIA) initiatives; performance and discipline issues; lingering pandemic-related issues and much more. All workshops and sessions will be categorized among seven tailored learning tracks: Equal Employment Opportunity, Human Resources, Labor Relations & Employee Relations, Alternative Dispute Resolution, Attorney/Legal, cyberFEDS® Users Group and Town Hall Conversations.

Attendees will expand their knowledge while meeting annual training requirements through timely and relevant workshops and sessions including:

- Putting Your Best Foot Forward: A Refresher for EEO Counselors and Investigators – This full-day interactive workshop led by Roslyn Brown and Oliver Allen will enable EEO counselors and investigators to meet their 8 hours of annual required training while refreshing and enhancing their knowledge of EEO laws, regulations and executive orders.
- Legal Ethics Training – This engaging session will explore attorney legal ethics with a specific focus on federal government lawyers and allow attendees to earn CLEs – including credits to satisfy their state's legal ethics requirements.

As the only event with a track dedicated to cyberFEDS®, FDR Training's cyberFEDS User Group sessions will focus on giving federal professionals hands-on training to most effectively use their cyberFEDS subscription to address daily workplace challenges. In addition, the FDR-exclusive Town Hall Conversations sessions will give attendees the unique opportunity to participate in open dialogues with leaders from the EEOC, FLRA, FMCS, MSPB, OPM and OSC.

"This year's FDR Training program provides a unique opportunity for attendees to learn about best practices from experienced trainers, including Barbara Haga and Bob Erbe, that they can take back to their agencies to more effectively address today's changing workplace needs and major Biden Administration initiatives," said Leslie Lake, Vice President, Federal Editorial, LRP Media Group. "Attendees will also hear from key agency leaders on their plans for the future and be able to network with colleagues from other agencies."

FDR Training will also feature the Opening Keynote, The Federal Workforce: Challenges for Today – and Tomorrow, where the U.S. General Services Administration’s Chief Human Capital Officer, Traci DiMartini, will discuss how agencies must embrace flexible HR policies and create more inclusive workplace cultures.
